

A Transnational Vision for Commercial Justice: The Bahrain International Commercial Court

Wednesday, 3 June 2026 | 4:00 pm – 6:00 pm | IDRC, Main conference room, 1 Paternoster Ln, London

As part of London Disputes Week 2026, this panel introduces the newly established Bahrain International Commercial Court (BICC), a new forum created to serve the needs of cross-border commerce and international investment through a modern and innovative judicial framework.

Officially launched in November 2025, the BICC represents a significant milestone in the evolution of global dispute resolution, combining common law and civil law traditions with a forward-looking, transnational vision.

4:00 Registration

4:30 Conversation: Introducing the Bahrain International Commercial Court

Sir Christopher Greenwood, (Judge of the BICC), Kevin Nash, and Reza Mohtashami KC join Professor Marike Patrani Paulsson in a conversation about the Court's unique features, its procedural innovations, and its role in shaping the future of international commercial justice.

6:00 Closing

Sir Christopher Greenwood
Judge and International Arbitrator

Kevin Nash
Director General,
London Court of International Arbitration
(LCIA)

Reza Mohtashami KC
Partner, Three Crowns
and Board Member,
Bahrain Chamber for
Dispute Resolution

Professor Marike Patrani Paulsson
Secretary General,
Council for International
Dispute Resolution
of the Kingdom of Bahrain

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER